

Ministry and Committee Duties

General Duties of Ministries and Committees

In addition to the specific duties and responsibilities listed, each ministry area, standing committee or sub-committee has the following general duties and responsibilities:

- Each ministry area, standing committee or sub-committee is responsible for implementing that part of the Presbytery's vision and goals that pertain to its purpose.
- Prepare, as part of the budget process, a proposal for the budget for its own operation.
- Consult, as part of the nominations process, with nominating committee on particular needs of the ministry area, standing committee or sub-committee.
- Advise the Stated Clerk of all standing subcommittees established by the standing committee along with the membership, chair, and functions thereof; and advise the Stated Clerk of all non-voting members added to the standing committee.
- Maintain and forward to the Stated Clerk minutes or other records of meetings and decisions of the ministry area, standing committee or sub-committee within 14 days.
- Maintain its portions of any policies or procedures in this Ministry Manual.
- Perform such other tasks as may be assigned by the Presbytery or the Coordinating Team.

Purpose

The Coordinating Team serves as the coordinating and program oversight body of the presbytery between meetings. When necessary, the Coordinating Team may act on behalf of the presbytery for routine business or when a called, special, or regular meeting of the presbytery is impractical.

Duties

1. Appoint special task forces of the Coordinating Team and, when instructed, the Presbytery.
2. Provide oversight and coordination of the committees and task forces of the Presbytery.
3. Coordinate the mission and programs of the Presbytery.
4. Review and evaluate annually Presbytery's mission and structure in light of the vision statement and the Book of Order.
5. Receive and provide for the implementation of referrals from the Presbytery. Ordinarily, response to requests for Presbytery action (other than those actions delegated to the Coordinating Team by policy) will be:
  - a. by referring the request, with or without a recommendation as to its approval, to the appropriate committee or task force, or
  - b. by a vote of the members of the Presbytery at the next meeting of the Presbytery.
6. Provide for the planning of the Presbytery's meetings, the Presbytery's worship, and approve all offerings to be taken at Presbytery meetings or in worship services of the Presbytery.
7. Work with the Stated Clerk to provide for the polity responsibilities of the Presbytery.
8. Be elected as the trustees of the Presbytery who will transact the legal business of the Presbytery.
9. Nominate individuals to the Presbytery to be elected to the Committee on Nominations.
10. In extraordinary cases, it may be essential that action be taken before the next Presbytery meeting and before a Presbytery meeting can be called. In such circumstances, the Coordinating Team may act on behalf of Presbytery to conduct such necessary and urgent business. Care should be taken to provide for action by the full Presbytery when possible.
11. Annually review the boundaries of Presbytery regions.

Membership

Membership shall be according to the provisions of the Organization and Structure of the Presbytery of Arkansas.

The General Presbyter, Stated Clerk or Asst. Stated Clerk, and Treasurer shall serve as staff resources.

Meetings

The Coordinating Team will ordinarily meet four times a year including an annual retreat. A quorum shall be a majority of the currently serving elected voting members as determined by the records of the Presbytery office, but in no event shall a quorum be less than five elected voting members.

Called meetings of the Coordinating Team shall be at the request of three voting members of the Coordinating Team.

Reporting

The Coordinating Team shall report its work directly to the Presbytery by submitting a written report at every Stated Meeting of the Presbytery. This report shall be prepared by the Moderator of the Coordinating Team and the Stated Clerk or Assistant Stated Clerk.

Limitations

The Coordinating Team shall not take any action contrary to the Book of Order or the Ministry Manual of the Presbytery of Arkansas.

The Administration Ministry Area

116

118

The Future of the Church serves as a catalyst to engage congregations and Presbytery Ministry Areas in creative thinking and planning beyond current models of ministry and programming to meet the challenges of new demographics and trends as society continues to change. The Future of the Church area assists with visioning, branding, technology, and development of new ministries. It provides new church development functions of the Presbytery.

1. Provide resources and resource persons to assist congregations to perform visioning activities for their churches and communities.
2. Develop branding for the presbytery and templates for churches to adapt for individual needs.
3. Develop advertising plan and funding to promote branding of presbytery and PC(USA) in media outlets throughout the presbytery.
4. Maintain accessible technology consultant, as either employee or volunteer, to assist congregations and actively encourage congregations' use of technology, websites, and social media.
5. Assist congregations with development of new ministries and utilization of 1001 New Worshiping Communities resources.
6. Continue to ask "what's next?" for the church and actively seek resources and programming ideas for implementation through congregations and Presbytery committees.
7. Identify sites for new church plants, develop core memberships, and encourage and empower their growth and ministry with collaboration between a standing New Church Committee and task forces appointed by the ministry area for each new church plant.
8. Assist churches to re-develop their mission and ministry as needed by forming a team of reps from New Church Committee and the 4 ministry areas to conduct mission study and develop action plan and timeline.
9. Oversee the work of special working groups and task forces formed to address special needs.
10. Assist congregations seeking funding or grants from other councils or agencies of the church.
11. Receive requests for encumbrance or sale of real property held in trust by congregations and forward such requests to the presbytery Coordinating Team.
12. Oversee all real property purchased for New Church Development and make recommendations to the presbytery for its use or disposal.

327 individual to explore the call to the ordered ministries of the church and shall 328 help the individual make a decision regarding her or his suitability for that 329 ministry.
- 330 2. Provide for the full preparation of persons to serve the church as Teaching 331 Elders. This shall be accomplished through the guidance and evaluation of 332 candidates, using contacts within a context of supportive relationship.
- 333 3. Instruct sessions on their role in the inquiry and candidacy process.
- 334 4. Maintain written reports of each annual consultation, including a statement 335 of the individual's strengths and areas of needed growth.
- 336 5. Certify, at the conclusion of the individual's candidacy period, that the 337 candidate is ready to receive a call, and, when the call is issued, is ready to be 338 ordained.

340 For Ruling Elders seeking commission to service in a particular congregation the 341 committee shall:

- 342 1. In cooperation with the Committee on Congregational Vitality and 343 Revitalization, consult with congregations seeking CRE leadership and 344 instruct sessions on their responsibilities.
- 345 2. Receive Application for Enrollment in the Process Leading to Commissioned 346 Ruling Elder.
- 347 3. Oversee the preparation and commissioning of of CREs according to the 348 Manual for the Preparation and Oversight of Ruling Elders Commissioned to 349 Pastoral Service.

351 For the certification of Christian Educators the committee shall:

- 352 1. Assist educators pursuing certification according to the prescribed by G-2.11.
- 353 2. Encourage congregations to make continuing education funds and time 354 available for those seeking certification.

414 congregational transitions.
- 415 9. Approve MIFs for congregations seeking pastoral leadership.
- 416 10. Ensure compliance with equal opportunity and other hiring policies.
- 417 11. Inquire with each session of the presbytery at least once every three
418 years and report information from these visits to relevant presbytery
419 ministries.
- 420 12. Inquire with each session of the presbytery at least once every three
421 years and report information from these visits to relevant presbytery
422 ministries.
- 423 13. Recommend minimum terms of call to the presbytery and review those 424 minimums annually.
- 425 14. Report to the presbytery annually the terms of call for all Teaching Elders
426 and CREs.
- 427 15. Provide for pastoral care for Teaching Elders, CREs, Certified Christian 428 Educators and their families.
- 429 16. Celebrate and affirm the gifts of retired Teaching Elders within the 430 presbytery and provide for recognition of those Teaching Elder members 431 of the presbytery who have died.

- 432 17. Coordinate opportunities for education and professional development 433 within the bounds of the presbytery.
434 18. Liaise with new Teaching Elders, CREs, and Christian Educators to 435 welcome them into the life of the presbytery and assist with their 436 transition into the presbytery. Normally a liaison will be appointed on 437 behalf of the committee.

439

The Mission of the Church Area

Purpose

The Mission of the Church Area provides oversight, planning, and support for programs that connect our congregations in practicing our faith through mission and outreach, Christian education, and spiritual development. The Mission of the Church Area will provide guidance and resources to help connect congregations in mission and ministry.

Duties

- The Mission of the Church Area is responsible to the Presbytery for the following:
1. Uphold the priorities of the presbytery that relate to mission and the work of the church in the world including interpretation of the vision and priorities of the larger church.
  2. Evaluate requests for funding for mission related ministries and projects.
  3. Provide strategies and resources in areas of leadership development, educational ministries, worship and theology through such programs as:
    - Retreats
    - Workshops
    - Informational packets
  4. Help develop ministries of justice and compassion and facilitate opportunities for individuals and congregations to participate in the same.
  5. Educate the presbytery on matters of social concern and help the presbytery engage in thoughtful and constructive dialogue on issues challenging our communities and world to the end that we witness in word and deed.
  6. Identify new concerns and issues that arise in our culture which call for spiritual engagement and action. Provide information and opportunities for engagement.
  7. Keep before the presbytery and its congregations the need to care for God's creation.
  8. Build ecumenical relationships and encourage ecumenical efforts in the presbytery.
  9. Receive reports from and encourage the ministry of the following entities:
    - Ferncliff
    - Presbyterian Pilgrimage
    - Presbytery Resource Center Advisory Board
    - Presbyterian Women
  10. Appoint special work groups and task forces as needed to address particular needs or support individual ministries.

Committee on Disaster Preparedness and Response

Purpose

The permanent Committee on Disaster Preparedness and Response provides the presbytery with planning and coordination in preparation for and response to natural or human-induced disasters within the bounds of the presbytery and response to such disasters outside the presbytery.

Duties

The permanent Committee on Disaster Preparedness and Response shall:

1. Recommend to the presbytery means by which the presbytery and its congregations can best prepare for natural or human-induced disasters.
2. Serve as a resource to congregations preparing disaster preparedness plans.
3. Prepare and disseminate a disaster response plan for presbytery.
4. Review and revise this plan as needed.
5. Coordinate a rapid response to local disasters and disasters outside the Presbytery of Arkansas.
6. Form and activate communication protocols as needed.
7. Ensure that pastors affected by disasters receive pastoral care.
8. Disseminate assessment and response information to affected churches and responding churches, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA), and other organizations including local inter-faith networks and Volunteer Organizations Active in Disasters (VOAD).
9. Plan training for DPRC members and field volunteers.
10. Liaison with inter-faith and civic disaster response agencies, and provide representatives as requested.
11. Develop and maintain master phone lists of DPRC members and field volunteers as well as resources available for prompt disaster response.
12. Recommend creation of financial accounts to receive and disburse relief funds.
13. Develop and maintain a Memorandum of Understanding with PDA.
14. Provide an annual report to Presbytery.

Presbyterian Women of the Presbytery of Arkansas

Purpose

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit we commit ourselves:
to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,
to support the mission of the church worldwide, to work for justice and peace, and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthen the Presbyterian Church (U. S. A.) and witness to the promise of God’s kingdom.

Membership

Presbyterian Women of the Presbytery of Arkansas shall be composed of all the women in the congregations of the Presbytery of Arkansas who choose to participate in, or be supportive of the Presbyterian Women.

Organization

Presbyterian Women of the Presbytery is headed by a coordinating team of leaders elected at the annual general meeting in the spring of each year. These elected leaders serve a two or three-year-term. There is an approved Manual of Operations for Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Arkansas by which they are guided.

Meetings

The Coordinating Team of Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery will normally meet at stated meetings a minimum of two times a year. Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery meet together at the Annual Spring Gathering. In the fall, cluster meetings are held in each cluster to provide for worship, fellowship, Bible study review, and to provide information to empower the leadership of Presbyterian Women.

Accountability and Support

The organization of Presbyterian Women will be accountable to the Presbytery through the Mission of the Church ministry area. The Moderator of Presbyterian Women shall have voice and vote in presbytery as provided by the organization and structure of the presbytery. This organization of women in the Presbytery is nurtured and financially supported by the Presbytery of Arkansas and shall annually submit a budget to the Administration Ministry Area and shall make a report to a meeting of presbytery at least annually.

Ministries with Youth, Collegiate, and Young Adults Area

707 The Committee on Nominations

708
709 Purpose

710 This committee shall be responsible for the nomination process in the Presbytery.

711
712 Responsibilities

713 The Committee shall:

- 714 1. After consulting with the ministries of the presbytery and seeking input from 715 congregations, Teaching Elder members, and committees, the committee
716 shall all presbytery officers, trustees, and permanent committee members,
717 except those positions elected in a different manner as delineated in other 718 places in this document.
- 719 2. Nominate all commissioners, alternates, and special delegates from this 720 presbytery to the General Assembly and Synod. Ordinarily, election of 721 commissioners to the General Assembly and Synod shall occur at the last 722 stated Presbytery meeting of the year.
- 723 3. Nominate moderators of presbytery committees.
- 724 4. Nominate a Counselor-at-law, who is an elder in the Presbyterian Church
725 (USA), to serve for three years.
- 726 5. Present nominations to the presbytery at its last stated Presbytery meeting 727 of the year at which time election will take place. The names and addresses of 728 such nominees shall be presented in printed form. Persons thus elected shall 729 ordinarily assume office at the beginning of the next year.
- 730 6. Secure in advance from the persons it nominates their willingness to be 731 nominated and to serve if elected.
- 732 7. Exercise care to achieve fair representation as regards geographical 733 distribution.
- 734 8. Nominate to the Coordinating Team, for immediate election and service, 735 members to fill unexpired terms as vacancies develop between presbytery
736 meetings and subsequently seek presbytery's ratification of these elections.
- 737 9. Maintain a current list of individuals currently serving the presbytery and a 738 record of past service.

740 Membership

- 741 1. This Committee shall be composed of ten members divided into three classes 742 (two classes of three members and one class of four) of three years each.

- 743 2. Five members shall be elected from the five regions of the presbytery (one 744 from each region). Five shall be at large members. In no case may more than 745 three members be from the same region.
746 3. Members of each class shall be elected at the last stated Presbytery meeting
747 of the year prior to the beginning of service. Those elected to fill an 748 unexpired term will begin service immediately.
749 4. This committee will conform to the principles of equality and parity.
750

Meetings

752 The committee shall meet at least annually.

753 The moderator may call special meetings as the needs of the presbytery demand. To 754 facilitate meetings with the most inclusive attendance, the committee is encouraged
755 to make use of the Electronic Meeting Policy.

756 A quorum shall be a majority of the currently serving members according to the 757 records of the presbytery office.

758

Accountability

760 The Committee on Nominations reports directly to the Presbytery of Arkansas by 761 submitting a written report at least annually. The Committee on Nominations 762 coordinates appropriate activities and requests for other ministries in the 763 Presbytery through the Coordinating Team.

The Committee on Representation

781

782

783

Purpose

784 The Committee on Representation (COR) advises the presbytery with respect to its 785 membership and that of committees, agencies, and other entities under the 786 direction of the presbytery to insure fair and effective representation according to 787 the principles of parity and representation.

Duties

790 The Committee shall:

- 791 1. Serve both as an advocate for the representation of racial ethnic members, 792 women, different age groups, and persons with disabilities and as a 793 continuing resource to the presbytery in these areas.
- 794 2. Review the performance of the Presbytery in these matters and shall report
795 annually to it and to the Synod with recommendations for any needed 796 corrective action.
- 797 3. Advise the Committee on Nominations of any need for nominations in 798 particular categories needing increased representation, and shall regularly
799 inform the Presbytery of its progress toward fair representation of racial 800 ethnic members, women, different age groups, and persons regardless of 801 marital status, and persons regardless of disabilities.

802

803

Membership

804 Presbytery shall elect an eight (8) member COR whose membership shall consist of 805 equal numbers of men and women. At least one member from each region shall be 806 elected. A majority of members shall be selected from the racial ethnic groups 807 within the governing body and the total membership shall include persons from 808 each of the following categories:

- 809 a. Majority male membership
- 810 b. Majority female membership
- 811 c. Racial ethnic male membership
- 812 d. Racial ethnic female membership
- 813 e. Youth male and youth female membership
- 814 f. Persons with disabilities

815 A quorum shall be a majority of the currently serving members of the committee as 816 determined by the records of the presbytery office, but in no event shall a quorum
817 be less than three members.

The presbytery shall elect the moderator of the committee, to serve for one year. The committee shall elect its own clerk for one year who shall take minutes of the meeting and distribute them among its members, the presbytery office, the Stated Clerk and the moderator of Coordinating Team within ten days of the meeting.

Meetings

The COR ordinarily meets following receipt of the current year’s General Assembly statistics and ordinarily reports to the following meeting of Presbytery. Other meetings may be called as needed.

Accountability

Statistical information shall be given to the COR by the presbytery office. The COR then compares all categories with the Presbytery’s general membership to show weaknesses and strengths. The COR works closely with the Committee on Nominations and may submit names of nominees if necessary. The COR reports directly to the Presbytery through an annual written report. The COR coordinates appropriate activities and requests for other ministries in the Presbytery through the Coordinating Team.

857 The Permanent Judicial Commission

Purpose

860 The Permanent Judicial Commission shall consider all cases either of a remedial or a 861 disciplinary nature transmitted to it from the Presbytery.

Duties

864 All its powers and proceedings must be in compliance with the constitution of the 865 Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and its rules of discipline (D-1.0000 – D-14.0502) and 866 as amended from time to time.

868

Membership

869 The Permanent Judicial Commission shall be composed of 12 members, six being 870 Ruling Elders and six being Teaching Elders, who shall be elected for six-year terms
871 with four persons in each of three classes; classes shall be elected in alternate years.
872 The members shall be recommended by Committee on Nominations and shall be 873 elected by presbytery. No person who has served for a full term of six years shall be 874 eligible for reelection until four years have elapsed after the expired six-year term
875 (D-5.0105).

877

Organization

878 A quorum is a majority of the members. (D-5.0204). When a new class is elected, the 879 Stated Clerk shall arrange for training and orientation for the entire Commission. At 880 this meeting the Commission shall elect its own moderator and clerk who shall 881 serve until the new moderator and clerk are elected. (D-5.0201)
