Members of this Administrative Commission should be members of the Presbytery of Arkansas or one of its congregations. There are generally seven members on a commission. The commission should be as balanced as possible between clergy and laity and between male and female. Only one Ruling Elder from a specific congregation may serve on the commission, and the membership of all Ruling Elders must be noted. A member of another Presbytery may be asked to sit with the commission but shall not be a member of the commission.

Members of the commission are asked to meet at the church 30 minutes prior to the service for the meeting of the Commission. The appropriate liturgical color for an installation service is red.

Members elected to serve on the Commission are the following:

Name	TE or RE	e-mail	Church
Marie Mainard O'Connell	TE	rev.mariemo@gmail.com	Park Hill
