(See the accompanying document in the Appendix Section IX, Exhibit B.) Boundaries training must be completed by all required before December 31, 2023, unless exempted by the Committee on Ministry.

General Presbyter Smith said that it's been a while since the presbytery had offered boundaries training and the Synod of the Sun offers the training. The training will be paid for by the Presbytery of Arkansas and tracked by the Synod of the Sun. Questions were asked and answered.

Moderator Arnold called for a vote for in-person and on zoom. It was unanimous and the motion carried.

RE Webb asked that the presbytery honor the minister members of the Presbytery who had joined the church eternal between meetings with a moment of silence. Minister of Word and Sacrament J.Q. Ferncliff Report

Moderator Arnold called on Joel Gill, Director at Ferncliff, for his report. He had a slideshow demonstrating the work that Ferncliff is accomplishing and spoke on the work to be completed for site improvements. He said that they had just hosted YouthQuake and Presbytery Pilgrimage at the same time and they will host Solar School again.

Treasurer's Report

Moderator Arnold called on Treasurer RE Tom Verdery for his report. He stated that 2022 continues to be a challenging year in the financial markets. He projects that the Presbytery of Arkansas income will be consistent with the early year forecast and expenses will be below budget. He expressed his gratefulness to all of the congregations who contribute to church benevolence. He said that the financial review for 2021 was completed recently and read the auditor's statement, "Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting." He translated the CPA terms to everything is great and the presbytery is in solid standing. The presbytery has a financial review every five years and then a full audit in the sixth year. He also reported that the administration committee has reviewed the presbytery's insurance coverage in 2022. He said that he and the presbytery staff is studying and completing a review of insurance coverage for 2023 to ensure all presbytery property is adequately covered.. He said that the administration committee will have the 2023 Budget ready for review and approval for the March 2023 presbytery meeting. In the Appendix, Section X, the treasurer's written report, financial statements, the auditor's 2021 financial review and 2022 liability insurance certificate may be found.

General Presbyter's Report

Moderator Arnold asked for the General Presbyter's report. General Presbyter Smith echoed the work of the administration committee in regard to recognizing long term contributions from churches that are not going up but probably decline inevitably. The committee is working on how to make reserve funds available to our congregations for use. Last year, Future of the Church funded grants for congregations from funds outside the budget. Mission of the Church uses money in their budget to fund grants for congregations. He said that 25 percent of the presbytery's spend rate funds the budget.

He had words of gratitude for the staff. In 2018-19, MWS Leslie Roper led a task force that designed matching staffing with structure and the reason that worked was the individuals who applied for the positions. Carol Clark, Julie Price, Brianne Christiansen, and Kim Palmer have the creativity and willingness to roll up their sleeves and work.

He reported YouthQuake went well in spite of a downpour and storms. He thanked Ruth Amensen, MWS Jocelyn Wildwright, MWS Marie Mainard O'Connell, MWS Becky Purcell, MWS Elizabeth Brinegar, Grant Wright, Adam Alexander, and all of the chaperones for their work in making YouthQuake a success. He said that participation in all levels had increased.

Youth events are coming in 2023. On June 18-23 instead of Moranch, the junior high students will go to Ferncliff for Junior High Presbytery Week. The Youth@Presbytery event will happen at the March 2023 presbytery meeting.

He reported he anticipates several churches will officially close in 2023. He wanted to reiterate that the presbytery does not want church properties and are not ready to grab the church's assets. This is a huge challenge for all presbyteries as they acquire more property. We do our best in working with congregations, with the expense and manpower for management and insurance.

He said that there are challenges in pastoral leadership and hoping to help that issue is the University of the Ozarks program, Thriving in Rural Ministry. MSW Phil Blackburn has a cohort of six or seven pastors he has been working with in the last two years including working on a leadership academy.

He said that he was going to end his report with good news and showed a slideshow of four vacation homes to raffle a two-night stay during lunch. He said that the vacation homes that were graciously donated for a two night stay.

Staff Reports

Presbytery Builder MWS Carol Clark suggested everyone go to the presbytery's web site, www.presbyark.org, scroll to the bottom of the page and see Jason Tucker's valuable workshops. She reported on PresbyArkConnect, the presbytery's FaceBook page. She continues to fill pulpits, so contact her as she loves to come and visit the churches. She said she continues work with sessions and members outreach committees as she is the Presbytery Builder.

Presbytery Connector Julie Price had a slideshow that highlighted presbytery events over the last two years. She mentioned Carol Clark's House Calls, On the Road events, retreats, and workshops all that had joy and connection. She reminded everyone to get in the Directory, the presbytery's database for contacts, and to get on PresbyArkConnect. She reported that the presbytery wants everyone to be connected, share resources and tools they need to be able to meet their needs.

*Call to Worship

Come, people of God. Gather together to worship and praise the One who created you, and the One who continues to shape you. Come and be filled with the presence of God.

We will rejoice and be glad in God's presence.

Gather together, people of God, for this is an opportunity for the refreshment of your spirits.

We will rejoice and give thanks for God's care.

Give thanks, people of God, our Savior is doing a new thing in our lives, and the power to receive it is in our hands.

We will rejoice and celebrate the love of our God.

We are pleased to be back together from all across the presbytery.

Let us make the most of our time together and celebrate our common faith, and the gift of each other.

Let us worship the living and loving God!

Prayer of Confession

Loving God, You create us for relationship. And yet, we are isolated from one another and separated from You. We confess that our self-sufficiency leads to loneliness, and our self-improvement leads to exhaustion. We confess that our tendency to limit our relationships to people who look, think, and act like us.

Help us to see others as You see them, and to love others as You love them. Anoint us with the power of Your Holy Spirit; connect us to the one body, the church, and to the Lord of the church, Jesus Christ, who comes to set the captives free... (time for silent confession)

GATHERING TO RECEIVE THE GOOD NEWS

Call to Worship

One: O Lord, where shall we find the courage to envisage a new beginning?

All: Out of the depths, Father, Mother, brother, we come to You.

One: In our confusion we cry to You...and suddenly comes the exciting news:

All: You, who abide in heavenly realms, You have come to us!

One: You have not considered the smallness of our planet or the fleeting nature of our lives.

All: It is grace--pure, unlimited grace!

One: Our human predicament You have made yours.

All: Now You announce a new morning, a new beginning.

One: And I saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

All: See, I am making all things new.

Hymn of Praise No. 318 Glory to God Hymnal

“In Christ There Is No East or West”

Call to Confession and Confession from Matthew 25: 37-39

The righteous will answer the King, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

Let us confess that we have missed the mark, we have not treated our brothers and sisters as we would the King of Creation. Let us admit our complicity and sin together.

Oh Lord, Hear us confess.

All: O God, we bear the imprint of Your face:

One: The colors of our skin are Your design, and what we have of beauty as a race of humans, You alone define,
who stretched a living fabric on our frame and gave us each a language and a name.

Hear us confess:

All: O God, we bear the imprint of Your face:

Where we are torn and pulled apart by hate because our race or skin is not the same;
when we are judged unequal by the state and made to bear uneven and unearned shame;
dishonored is Your living face on earth,
and all humanity reduced to little worth.
Hear us confess:

All: O God, we bear the imprint of Your face:

We share the image of your Son whose flesh and blood are ours, whatever skin.
In his humanity, we find our own and in his family our proper kin.
Christ is the brother we still crucify;
his love the language we must learn, or die.
We are complicit in continuing the patterns of the world.
Let us admit this in our hearts, and repent.

(Silent Confession)

Assurance of Pardon

SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

Reading of the Word

Proclamation of the Word

Elder Willie Morris

RESPONDING TO THE GOOD NEWS

Affirmation of Faith From the Confession of 1967

Jesus Christ is God with humankind. Christ is the eternal only begotten of God who became human and lived among us to fulfill the work of reconciliation.
Christ is present in the church, by the power of the Holy Spirit, to continue and complete his mission.

All : Therefore, the church calls all people to be reconciled to God and to one another. God has created the peoples of the earth to be one universal family.

In reconciling love, God overcomes the barriers between sisters and brothers and breaks down every form of discrimination based on racial or ethnic differences, real or imaginary.

All: The church is called to bring all people to receive and uphold one another as persons in all relationships of life: in employment, housing, education, leisure, marriage, family, church, and the exercise of political rights. Therefore, the church labors for the abolition of all racial discrimination and ministers to those injured by it.

Sending Litany from James 2:14-26

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them?

ALL: Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,”

ALL: but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?

In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. But someone will say, “You have faith; I have deeds.”

All: Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds.

Do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend.

All: You see that a person is considered righteous by what they do and not by faith alone.

In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction?

ALL: As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

Therefore go in peace, to love and serve the Lord with a faith that acts out of love.

ALL: Amen.

Section VIII - Future of the Church (FOTC) Committee Report

October 2022

MWS Steven Kurtz

Moderator

The Future of the Church invites you to visit our display. On a 'first come first, served' basis pick up a free book: The Art of Gathering or Secrets of a Secret Shopper. Both of these books have very pertinent applications to church life today and we'd love to get some of these into the hands of those who might not have run across them yet.

The Art of Gathering is a brilliant 'rethink' of the way we conceive of and handle our church get togethers. With Georgia Senor's leadership and drawing on the wisdom of this book, First Bentonville is conducting a series of gatherings "Conversations that Matter." Carol Clark, our Presbytery builder, has asked Georgia to lead us in a book discussion in the new year because the challenge of the book is not just reading it but applying it. Zooming together will allow time for discussion and visioning about how to make all of those gatherings that we hold more gracious and connective.

Secrets of a Secret Shopper may not leave you 'gasping with revelation,' but as a primer for Church Welcome 101, there are really not many more effective options. This book is a perfect tool for your 'welcome/membership/outreach' committees to study together and not just study but apply to your own situation. Read this book, then walk your campus and Sunday morning worship with the eyes of a visitor and you might be surprised how many small changes could be very important.

Members of the FOTC are always excited when we learn about our churches who are honestly grappling with 'being the church' in changing times, particularly in terms of worship and worship styles. We want to share 3 of those in our Presbytery with you.

1. First United Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville has just launched Third Worship which will meet on the third Sunday of each month at 4pm. Featuring 'rock type contemporary music,' this service is intended to appeal to college students, young families and their own youth who can worship and then gather for their Sunday youth programs. The 'sermon' is replaced by an introduction to a gospel reading and then a time for discussion in small groups, wrapping up with another song and a simple blessing. Another beautiful thing that is happening in this reformed and contemporary style of worship is that the youth of First Presbyterian Springdale came to worship, too. It doesn't get any better than worship and connection with other Presbyterians! To see the service, go to this link on YouTube (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IzcVizCa_sE) or find them on their website/worship/streaming.
2. In Fort Smith, a New Worshipping Community called A Circle of Friends Gathering has formed and meets starting with supper on the first and third Sundays of the month. After the meal, they gather in the living room of the Sweet House which was repainted and furnished using FOTC grants. They sit in a circle, light a candle, have a moment of meditative silence, take time to hold in the light anyone who expresses a concern, sing a song, then take turns leading a discussion topic. They end with the serenity prayer. The Gatherings are inclusive, informal, and non-hierarchical. Leadership is shared and volunteer. They have just started, but plan to add community service to their activities.
<https://circleoffriendsgathering.org/>
3. First in Little Rock is housing a new contemporary worship service that is reformed and open, welcoming to all, informal and filled with the spirit. The group committed to this new worship style has, with their own resources and volunteer musicians, created a different experience of worship. They are grateful to First Presbyterian for giving the space (and also the air-conditioning) to allow for a way to experiment with a new form other than traditional worship. Worship is at 9:30am each Sunday morning!

The FOTC committee (with additional help from the Coordinating Team) awarded grants to 9 of our churches; 5 for help with technology, 1 for a consultant (Jason Tucker), 3 for community outreach events. It's GRANT TIME again. We invite all of you who are pondering endeavors that are aimed at strengthening or changing some directions in the life of your church to consider applying for a grant for 2023. You can find the application on the Presbytery's website (<http://presbyark.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/Grant-Application-2022-FINAL.pdf>) or email or text Carol Clark (cbclark05@aol.com; 501-563-6279.) The FOTC grants are not for general property improvement but for specific kinds of programs, events or projects that engage our churches with the community and encourage connections with people in the communities.

We have a GREAT committee, eager to find ways to be of specific help to our congregations. We are always open to suggestions. The members of our committee are:

Class of 2022— Cameron Highsmith, Steven Kurtz, Michael Ulasewich, Marci Ward, David Webb

Class of 2023— Valerie Bell, Greg Fairchild, Ty Hendricks, John Gibson

Class of 2024 — Sally Roden, Amanda Jones , Cindy Lanphear

Respectfully submitted,

MSW Steven Kurtz, Chair

Statement of Faith

I believe God is the creator of the universe and is self-revealing as one being in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God's essential nature is everlasting love which is revealed in God's personal involvement in creation and with human beings in life-giving ways through various covenants.

I believe Jesus Christ is the eternal Word of God who 'took on flesh' and became Immanuel, God with us. He proclaimed the love of God to all through his preaching and ministry, especially those in need. Because the powers of his time "loved the darkness rather than the Light," Jesus was crucified; three days later he arose from the dead to demonstrate God's unfailing love for us and God's power over evil and death. Jesus is alive now in heaven where he intercedes for us and waits for the time of his return to earth for the final defeat of the powers of darkness.

I believe the Holy Spirit is the active presence of God in the world today. It is the Spirit who continues to reveal God's work in the world, interprets the Word of God, gives gifts to all people and empowers believers for discipleship and service in the Church and in the world. Through the work of the Holy Spirit believers are formed into the one Body of Christ, are able to work together for the good of all and become a transforming agency in the world.

I believe human beings are created in the image of God and therefore have worth as persons. As God is relational, so are human beings; we are meant to have life-affirming relationships with God, others and ourselves. Humanity, however, is tainted in every aspect of life by the effects of sin which causes chaos and destruction in those relationships. It is the mercy and grace of God in Christ through the indwelling Holy Spirit which saves us from those destructive forces, transforms our desires and actions and enables us to become who we are created to be.

I believe the Church includes all who are called to faith in Christ through the work of the Holy Spirit and that the church's primary work is the worship and service of God in the communities in which it is located. That work is accomplished through nurturing people in the faith, education in and interpretation of the Scripture, the celebration of the sacraments and participation with the Holy Spirit in transforming the lives of those in and out of the church through service and mission. I believe that the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper are tangible signs and seals of the work of God in the lives of his people. Through Baptism, we are called into new life and grafted into the Body of Christ, the Church, to be nurtured and sustained as we mature in discipleship of Christ and service to others. In the Lord's Supper, the Body of Christ gathers around the table of remembrance to express our gratitude for all that God has done for us, to reaffirm our commitment to each other and to receive nourishment for the work to which God has called us as individuals and as a covenant community.

Not-Your-Average Boundaries Training Offered by Synod of the Sun

It's the experience of those within the Synod of the Sun that pastors, church staff, and other leaders who transgress boundaries by-and-large are not predators. In fact, not even close. Most people in ministry who violate boundaries are individuals who know and follow the rules most of the time but whose judgment may be impaired due to an unusually stressful time in their lives.

With that in mind, Not-Your-Average Boundaries Training, offered by Synod of the Sun, is tailored to focus on strategies to foster mental health, emotional resiliency, and well-being. While this training still covers the requirements — “Don’t sleep with a parishioner unless you’re married to them” and the like —the best prevention is to encourage clergy to take steps to manage their stress in order to maintain balance and perspective when temptation arises. The program teaches a 3-step strategy to help stop the participant in their tracks before they commit a boundary violation; and participants leave with their own personal prevention plan.

This training is lively and interactive, full of reflection and conversation — and even laughter. Attendees have given the Synod feedback that this boundaries training was a great experience, AND caused them to re-evaluate some of their own practices.

Participants MUST take part in ALL five hours of training in order to receive the certificate of completion. Dates the training is offered are:

November 8-9, 2022 from 5:00 – 7:30 pm

February 6-7, 2023, from 9:30 am – noon

There are other options for meeting the requirements for boundaries training in addition to these two dates. The Synod of the Sun PCUSA is committed to ensuring that the presbyteries within its bounds provide safe places of worship and fellowship to everyone served. As part of that commitment, the Synod is providing information on Safe Gatherings as a resource for pastors and congregations in this important area. Safe Gatherings provides a 2-hour online course called “Clergy Ethics and Congregational Boundaries.” In partnership with many presbyteries, the Synod is sponsoring this course as a means of meeting requirements for boundaries training.

Please see the Synod’s website for more information and to register for one of the classes:

Section X – Written Report of the Treasurer

RE Tom Verdery
Treasurer

For Information

1. While 2022 continues to be a challenging year in the financial markets, through September, the Presbytery of Arkansas is projecting income for 2022 to be consistent with our early year forecasts and expenses will be below budget. Early in the year there were still significant concerns over Covid impacting our ministry spending, which is why we are below budget. We continue to be grateful to all Church Benevolence contributions to the Presbytery of Arkansas.
2. Texas Presbyterian Foundation performance through September 2022 in their Balanced Pooled Funds is down approximately 23.4%. Fortunately, your Presbytery of Arkansas is in a strong cash flow position with significant funds in money market and checking accounts, eliminating any significant need to take money from the Balanced Pooled funds invested in stocks and fixed income.
3. We just completed our 2021 independent Financial Review from Landmark, Certified Public Accountants. The accounting firm's review came back with a solid review (see pages 29-47 in the Main Packet), showing no discrepancies or recommendations for modification of any of our financial statements.
4. The Administration Committee has had the presbytery's insurance review performed in 2022, which raised several questions including the need to increase the umbrella value for the 2022 renewal, verifying insured business items value versus insured amount, and ensuring all presbytery property has liability insurance. Also, the question was raised about which properties that are owned by the Presbytery, as the list is continually being updated as new properties have come on board. The Administration Committee, Treasurer and the Presbytery Staff are studying and addressing these questions to be well prepared for the insurance renewal for 2023. See accompanying document in the Main Packet, Section F –Exhibit V.
5. Your Committee on Administration will be bringing their proposed 2023 financial budget to our next Presbytery meeting (March 2023) for review and approval.
6. Our continued focus for 2022 and beyond will be creating programs and support to help all churches as they move back to normal activities post pandemic.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

Committee on Administration

Presbytery of Arkansas

Little Rock, Arkansas

We have reviewed the accompanying modified cash basis financial statements of Presbytery of Arkansas (the Presbytery), which comprise the statement of assets, liabilities, and net assets – modified cash basis as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting the company uses is an acceptable basis for the preparation of financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

We are required to be independent of the Presbytery and to meet our ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our reviews.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting.

Supplementary Information

Our review was made primarily for the purpose of expressing a conclusion about whether any material modifications should be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting. The accompanying Schedule of Designated Revenues and Expenses – Modified Cash Basis is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The supplementary information has been subjected to the review procedures applied in our review of the basic financial statements. We are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the supplementary information. We have not audited the supplementary information and do not express an opinion on such information.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our conclusion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Presbytery of Arkansas

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2021 and 2020

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Operations

The Presbytery of Arkansas (the Presbytery) exists as a religious entity under the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). As such, their mission is to inspire, challenge and help the congregation, agencies, ministers, and leaders to fulfill the call to service as faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

The Presbytery is made up of 76 Presbyterian churches located throughout Arkansas. The membership of the Presbytery includes all Ministers of member churches and ruling elders elected by member congregations. The Committee on Administration oversees the budget, financial operations of the Presbytery and may designate certain assets to be used first as support for certain programs and activities and, if not needed, then for general operations. Principal revenues of the Presbytery are primarily from benevolence received from the member churches. All of the Presbytery's expenditures are for the programs which benefit these churches and members.

Basis of Accounting and Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statements are prepared using the modified cash basis of accounting. Under this basis, certain revenues and related assets are recognized when cash is received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when they are paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. This basis differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because these financial statements do not include promises to give from church members or amounts due to vendors and employees for goods and services received prior to year-end for which payment had not been made as of year-end.

Basis of Presentation

The Presbytery presents information regarding financial position and activities according to the following two classes of net assets:

Net Assets without Donor Restrictions—Net assets that are not subject to or are no longer subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net Assets with Donor Restrictions—Net assets whose use is limited by donor-imposed time and/or purpose restrictions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of demand deposit accounts maintained with financial institutions and cash and highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less held by the Texas Presbyterian Foundation (TPF).

Investments

The Presbytery's investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly fashion between market participants at the measurement date. Investment return includes realized and unrealized gains and losses and interest income received. Investment income and gains restricted by donors are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met (either a stipulated time period ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished) during the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized and are appropriated for expenditure. Otherwise, income and gains are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions.

Presbytery of Arkansas

Notes Receivable

Notes Receivable consist of unsecured emergency pandemic loans to two churches within the region governed by the Presbytery. Notes remaining at December 31, 2021 and 2020, include one note in the original amount of $10,000 at zero percent interest dated April 2020 and another note in the original amount of $25,000 at zero percent interest dated March 2020, both of which are due within 24 months of the date of the note or upon sale of the church property, whichever occurs first.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at historical cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. Major renewals and betterments in excess of $1,000 are capitalized, while normal repairs and maintenance are expensed in the period incurred. Depreciation of these assets is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, ranging from five to forty years. Property donated and held for sale is not depreciated.

Revenue Recognition

Contributions received are recorded as with donor restrictions or without donor restrictions depending on the existence and nature of the donor-imposed stipulations.

Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the support is received. All other donor-restricted contributions are recorded as increases in donor restricted net assets. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets as net assets released from restrictions.

Donated Services and In-Kind Contributions

Donated services are recognized as contributions only if the services (a) create or enhance non- financial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Presbytery. Although a substantial number of uncompensated volunteers have donated significant amounts of their time to the Presbytery, the value of such donated services has not been recognized as contributions in the financial statements as the recognition criteria was not met.

Presbytery of Arkansas

Functional Expenses

The Presbytery considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administration and fundraising for financial statement presentation.

Presbytery of Arkansas

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

Income Taxes

The Presbytery is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the Code). The Presbytery has been classified as a publicly supported organization which is not a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Code.

Accounting standards require the Presbytery to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Presbytery has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Presbytery has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2021, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the modified cash basis financial statements. The Presbytery may be subject to audit by the Internal Revenue Service; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In September 2020, Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2020-07, Presentation and Disclosure by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets. The new guidance, which is effective for the Presbytery on January 1, 2022, is intended to improve transparency in the reporting of contributed nonfinancial assets, also known as gifts-in-kind, for not-for-profit organizations. The ASU requires a not-for-profit organization to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line in the statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis, apart from contributions of cash or other financial assets. It also requires a not-for-profit entity to enhance disclosures about the valuation of those contributions and their use in programs and other activities, including any donor-imposed restrictions on such use. Management of the Presbytery is currently evaluating the effect that implementation of the amendments in this update will have on the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2: DEPOSITS AND INVESTMENTS

Cash and Cash Equivalents

At December 31, cash and cash equivalents consist of the following:

	2021	2020
Demand deposit accounts at financial institutions	239,154	$ 389,550
Cash and cash equivalents held by TPF	852,141	854,760

Investments

The Presbytery maintains cash balances in accounts with several financial institutions. The balances in these accounts may exceed applicable insured limits. Management believes that such accounts are maintained with reputable financial institutions and the Presbytery has not experienced any losses in these accounts to date. Cash balances held by TPF are not insured, however, the Presbytery does not believe that it is subject to any unusual risk beyond the normal credit risk associated with other commercial banking relationships. Also, it is the opinion of management that solvency of the TPF is not of particular concern at this time.

The Presbytery invests its funds in the Balanced Pooled Fund administered by the TPF. The TPF manages the assets and maintains separate accounts for each participating entity. The Fund is a balanced fund and assets may be invested in equities, fixed income and cash equivalent securities. Investments are available to be withdrawn upon written notice to TPF and may be restricted to withdrawal on the first business day of the calendar month following ten days written notice.

Investments held at TPF have been valued based on the Presbytery's interest in the pooled funds managed by the TPF, which are evidenced by a unit. The value of a unit is calculated based on the fair value of the underlying assets, adjusted for the effects of such transactions as administrative fees and investment income that has not been reinvested in the underlying assets, as reported by TPF, because there is no ready market for the assets. Valuation based on net asset value used as a practical expedient is permitted and the pooled investments held at TPF are not required to be reported under the investment classification hierarchy.

NOTE 6: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Presbytery is a guarantor of a loan totaling $350,000 from the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to a church. The loan is secured by a first mortgage on the real estate owned by the church. This guarantee would require the Presbytery to make the required loan payments in the event the church is unable to do so. Upon default, the real estate would revert to the Presbytery, who could sell the property to pay off the outstanding loan balance. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the total outstanding balance was approximately $92,000 and $113,000, respectively. The church was current with the required payments at December 31, 2021.

NOTE 7: RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

As of the date of the independent accountant's report, the COVID-19 pandemic has had an adverse impact on both domestic and global financial markets. Management is unable to accurately predict how the COVID-19 pandemic will affect the results of the Presbytery's operations due to uncertainties surrounding the severity of the disease and the duration of the outbreak. However, it is presumed that Presbytery operations will be impacted.

Section XI - Report of the Ministries with Youth, Young Adult, and College Ministry

MWS Margaret Alsup
Moderator of Committee

Our Youth Advisory Team is busy getting ready for Youth Quake (Oct. 14-16) at Ferncliff. There will be junior high and senior high youth from across the presbytery gathering for a weekend of fun, fellowship, and growth. The theme Youth Quake this year is When Did You See Me?

We have 17 college aged students signed up for the Montreat College Conference set for January 2-5, 2023. We are excited to be back together and in the mountains of North Carolina. If you have a college student interested in joining us, please reach out!

We are also in the planning process for a College Quake for February 17-19, 2023. We will be at Ferncliff for this gathering. More information will be released as we select the theme, speaker, and plan. If you are a college student or know of one who would be interested in joining the College Quake weekend, please reach out to Maggie (margaret.alsup@lyon.edu).

We have formed a committee to help assist our committee and presbytery with updating policies and procedures that are more inclusive for our members. The goal is to update language on forms, update the existing policies and procedures. It is our hope that we can bring these updates to the presbytery later this year (March or June 2023 meetings).

We are working as a committee to envision what the role of the presbytery leadership role should look like for the youth and young adults of this presbytery. There are things we realize we need from leadership. There are things that we would love to create. We are grateful for the time Brianne has served the presbytery well, but we are ready to begin the process of envisioning what comes next. We will keep you posted as we navigate this process.

As always, we continue to seek ways to be a resource for the presbytery and to support our youth, young adults, and college aged students. If you ever have questions, ideas for programming, or need to connect with the committee, please do not hesitate to reach out to Maggie (margaret.alsup@lyon.edu)
