

First Presbyterian Church of Batesville is seeking a full-time solo pastor. The church is a historic institution which was established in 1842 and remains debt free with ownership of the storied grounds it resides on. The 127 active members of this historic congregation are hopeful to find a faith leader that can inspire and invigorate its members.

Batesville, Arkansas has a population of 11,000 and is nestled in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains along the White River. Both of which offer ample opportunities for outdoor recreation, while the town itself boasts amenities not common for a town of its intimate size and low cost of living. The position has a salary range of $70,000 - $75,000.
